

Jennifer A. Schmeisser

AUTHOR · SPEAKER · ADVOCATE

Honest, hilarious, and deeply practical.

ABOUT JENNIFER

Jennifer A. Schmeisser has spent more than thirty years raising her son, Ryan, who has autism and OCD. A self-taught special-education advocate, she won a 2½-year legal battle for his rights and later built the "Mama Bear Protocol" to safeguard vulnerable adults in supported living.

After a health scare forced her to face caregiver burnout, she completed Duke Integrative Health & Well-Being Coach Training, earned her ICF ACC credential, and became certified in Positive Intelligence. Her memoir, When the Blueprint Burned: A Unicorn Mama Memoir of Neurodiversity, Strength, Joy & Humor, blends laugh-out-loud stories with practical tools.

> "He taught me that 'normal' is just a setting on the dryer."

WHY AUDIENCES CONNECT

- Lived, not theorized: 30+ years, from diagnosis day to adult supported living
- Humor with heart: stories that make rooms laugh, then lean in
- Tools they'll use: every talk ends with doable "Micro-Missions"

SIGNATURE TOPICS

★ When the Blueprint Burns

Finding joy in the life you didn't plan

Grief, grit, and glitter: why grieving the blueprint isn't grieving your child, and how to celebrate the wins that matter.

The Supreme Ruler

Fearless advocacy, at any age

Surviving the IEP "interrogation," the 125% Rule, pop-in visits, and hiring, training, and sometimes firing the village.

You Are Not a Renewable Resource

The 10-Minute Rescue for caregivers

The German doctor's wake-up call, habit stacking, the 8 PM shutdown, and sleep as survival.

The Mama Bear Protocol

Safeguarding vulnerable loved ones

Why abuse thrives in secrecy, plus practical prevention: pop-ins, cameras, sacred spaces, and body checks.

Special Abilities

Words build worlds

The kaleidoscope vs. the straw, empathy over sympathy, and small changes that make places truly welcoming.

Ask, Seek, Knock

Faith in the valley

Psalm 23 for the weary caregiver, being angry at God, and how He stayed.

Let's make your event unforgettable.
